We are an accredited institution that brings education home with our offering of affordable home schooling, tutoring and comprehensive eBooks.

Why choose Syllabis above your other options?

Founded in 2016, we have 7 years of extensive experience in the online and home-schooling industry, we were not born during the pandemic.

Trusted by thousands of parents and students since 2016, with happy and enthusiastic learners, who go on to achieve their dreams.

An extensive tutoring service consisting of more than 3500 tutors, with a support network for when you need help.

Better value for money versus traditional schools or other distance school options (approximately 20% more cost-effective for the equivalent service offering).

Excellent customer support, quick response times, and friendly service. Customer care is available during extended office hours.

Seen as an industry leader. Most of our competitors adopt our innovations within months of launching them.

The Syllabis 2023 School at Home offering has been further enhanced, for the 2023 academic year.

Having been founded in 2016, we have gained significant insight into the school-at-home market and have decided to take an approach of focus – focusing on your needs and delivering on our promises to help your child excel at school via an exciting, technology-driven approach to teaching and learning.

Our offerings are products and features based, which were introduced into the industry as an innovator in 2020, comprising different tools and services allowing us to tailor the solution that you need.

We're not a boilerplate provider of school-at-home solutions; we genuinely have your best interests at heart and to prove this we have developed a few cool tools to help you carve out a successful future.

We offer a 5-tiered product approach to school at home, with each offering customizable to your unique needs. Of course, you are free to upgrade or downgrade at your discretion. We don't lock you in.

For detailed package components please see page 18.

Subjects covered in grades 7 to 9: *English Home Language *Afrikaans First Additional Language/isiZulu/isiXhosa/Sesotho/Setswana *Life Orientation *Mathematics *Natural Science*History*Geography *Technology *Economic Management Sciences *Creative Arts

Syllabis Education Grade 4 – 9

Once a learner has completed a unit topic, the unit can be ticked off as COMPLETED on their learner portal. This feedback is presented to parents on the parent portal in the form of graphs/percentages complete. Should the learner need additional help, over and above the work done from the eBooks, they are then routed to the iWizard.

There are online quizzes for every topic in eBooks on the iWizard, which provide instant results to learners. These quizzes can be done as many times as needed until the topic is understood.

For exam preparation, each term has online exam practices for learners to get comfortable with potential exam-type questions.

A selection of pre-recorded lessons per grade is contained in the iWizard and can be accessed at any time.

Our Lion and Eagle packages include 2 themes per year, including one project at the end of the year. Small online group tutoring is included in these packages, providing for learners who need more guidance.

We set out the curriculum, unit by unit in our study guides. Learners then cover these units at their own pace, using a selection of tools to enhance and assist per unit.

Syllabis has revolutionary educational animations for every topic in our eBooks for every grade, including Afrikaans and isiZulu! This enhances the curriculum understanding substantially.

Syllabis Education Grade 10 – 12

Curriculum packages available for the 2023 academic year:

Elephant

The Elephant package is best suited for a top-performing learner who can work fully independently and generally requires minimal support and always performs brilliantly. As a result of this, the cost of the Elephant is lower than the rest of our packages but should only be considered in the case of budget restrictions.

Buffalo

The Buffalo package is ideal for the above-average performing learner who can work independently but sometimes needs a little help to get to the grips of a topic or a particular subject. The Buffalo comprises the Elephant package plus the iWizard, iMaster, iAnimate, iWellness, Study Skills, and The 8 Pillars courses.

Lion

The Lion package best suits the average-performing learner who can work independently but still needs a fair amount of help to get the grips of a topic or a particular subject. The Lion comprises the Buffalo package plus iInteract (monthly) and Product Theme support features.

Eagle

The Eagle is the ultimate curriculum package available anywhere you can think of and loaded with learner support features you can only dream of. It has all the features of the Elephant, Buffalo, and Lion packages, plus iInteract+ (daily).

The Eagle is a blend of both online and independent learning, with an emphasis on independent learning, which all top educational experts and the most successful entrepreneurs of all time agree with.

If your budget allows for it, this is the best value-for-money curriculum available in South Africa today, and if not, then we have the Kudu, Impala, Elephant, Buffalo, and Lion packages to choose from, which combined, make up the Eagle package, plus one or two amazing surprises, all at very affordable prices.

How does distance learning work?

Of course, no matter what our recommendation is, you are always free to choose any method, product, and feature that you want.

While other providers will “fit” you into their 1 program, we perform a detailed needs analysis on you and your child, the output of which is a detailed report, providing you with recommendations on what path to take, and which products to enroll in for, with which features.

If you have already decided on your method of learning, you do not need to perform the needs analysis.

Of course, no matter what our recommendation is, you are always free to choose any method, product, and feature that you want.

Onboarding

During the onboarding process, no matter your selected method of learning, or products or features, our goal is to make this experience as seamless and crisp as possible.

Tests and Exams

As you progress through your learning, test and exam notifications will be sent out regularly. We make the process a breeze.

Transfers In and Out

If you are in grades 10 – 12, we need to do an official transfer from your existing school. For transfers in earlier grades, a letter of confirmation from your existing school is acceptable. If you are not in a school, we will assess your child.

Value-added products and services from Syllabis

Syllabis eBooks

Our Literature Study Guides make nationally prescribed novels, The 2023 eBooks have been consolidated into one succinct eBook, managed via our digital rights management application. The eBooks application allows students to access the content on different types of devices, highlight areas of importance, and tag e-notes for later consumption.

Syllabis eBook for grade R – 3 also come in a printed version. All other eBooks are available only in digital format.

Our promise to you is that your materials will be dispatched to you within 24 hours of registration confirmation.

Features:

- Each eBook is tied to additional, extended learning online lessons available on iWizard.
- Each eBook is tied to an additional, extended assessment concluded online, available on iWizard.
- If you request printed books for grades r to 3, there is an additional charge for this. This is to cover the additional costs incurred in printing, courier, and administration. All workbooks for grades R – 3 are couriered to your home or nearest Postnet.
- These books are 100% aligned with CAPS.

Syllabis iTheme

In 2023, Syllabis Education is now the first distance school to introduce a theme-based approach to teaching and learning for its grade R – 9-grade packages. The Theme based packages are also 100% aligned with CAPS, so there is no impact on the curriculum at all.

These are provided for Term 1 and Term 3.

Why Theme-Based Learning?

Learning is a process of integration. When learners see how concepts connect with one another across subjects, we are constructing an important and powerful understanding of educational topics. If students can communicate that meaning, the learning is further reinforced. Therefore theme-based learning is so effective.

Reasons to choose the Lion or Cheetah Package that includes Syllabis iTheme.

It's more fun and engaging to teach and learn using a theme.

Value-added products and services from Syllabis

Learners become inspired and have wider thinking. We find that students learning around a theme, are more engaged as the topics and subjects are linked together around a succinct topic. This makes us very different from our competitors although we are sure they might copy us soon.

It harnesses curiosity to motivate learning.

Building the various CAPS subjects around a central theme, increases the amount of curiosity that comes with learning around a Theme. It also assists with memory retention and faster revision of work as the “pieces of the puzzle” come together.

Better Intelligence levels

To really understand a topic and apply one’s knowledge to solve real-life problems, students need to be able to bring together common sense, knowledge, and skills.

Through a theme-based approach, Syllabis learners make connections constantly, thereby developing a much deeper and broader level of understanding than traditional learning at other schools.

Critical thinking skills are much more developed because students regularly explore ideas, compare, and evaluate viewpoints, apply knowledge, and even create new ideas.

In turn, this leads to advanced creative thinking (thinking outside the box) and problem-solving skills. In fact, it is their types of skills that lead to true success, and confidence in education at the tertiary level.

Knowledge retention

When students learn through a theme, they are learning in context, and in a more fun environment. This not only helps students understand and remember what they are learning (and why they are learning it), but also to attach ideas and skills to specific contexts. This helps them build either physical or mental learning maps.

It teaches children how to learn.

Value-added products and services from Syllabis

With theme-based learning, students are thinking for themselves and connecting the pieces of the puzzle, following the thread of a topic to explore and discover more. It's a way of learning throughout life and at Syllabis, we are here to help your children of all ages succeed.

More Challenging Than Other Methods

Forget 'accelerated learning' approaches! When you put learning into context, learning faces the same complexities as real-life.

Numbers become real-life numbers. Language becomes richer and more challenging. Problems need to be determined and are not prescribed. Answers are many and varied. Critical thinking and communication are a must.

Theme-based learning is much more challenging than traditional learning because the level of complexity, breadth, and depth is far greater. Traditional learning puts too much emphasis on text books, lectures, exams/quizzes with multiple choice questions, and prescribed answers, which severely restricts any learning.

It draws in the child's family.

Parents more easily become partners in learning around a theme. "The family, with its own interests and views, can more easily become involved, thus broadening the spectrum of the whole experience," Chris says. "When forced into the confines of a secondary school timetable, I still used a thematic approach in a once-a-week history lesson that grew from an old stone I found with the date 1694 on it. As a class, we invented an English family living at the time. On Parent-Teacher Night, I was told by one couple, 'We love Tuesday teatime because we find out what has happened with the 1694 family, and when we are out and about, we look for more information and connections.'"

Syllabis Online Study Guides

A Syllabis Study Guide is a manual to assist in navigating CAPS-aligned school subjects and home-schooling in general.

They advise on how to structure the home-schooling approach and the home-schooling environment to benefit the learner.

The Study Guides outline the topics/units and guide learning with weekly planners and time allocations. Guidance on how to navigate the eBooks is also shared in the Study Guides. Study Guides also guide parents/guardians/tutors and the learner through the term's work and the learning objectives for individual subjects.

Additional support is provided with resource links to further the learner's understanding or facilitate revision.

Orientation Week

The orientation of any student into the Syllabis Educational Ecosystem required some form of orientation, although many students have been able to jump right in with no support whatsoever.

Every student that enrolls with Syllabis, has the choice to participate in various levels of orientation.

Our orientation sessions are conducted online, but those that live in Johannesburg, are always welcome to pop into our learning centre.

- View our online orientation recordings.
- 1-or-2-day Orientation Plan, conducted online via video call.
- Enhanced Orientation Plan – for those students needing greater help transitioning to school at home. This usually takes place sporadically over a 2 to 3-week period.

iWizard

Enhanced Learning System

The vast amount of content and information that makes the world wide web such an invaluable instructional tool is precise which limits its usefulness in the classroom as the data is largely unstructured. The Syllabis iWizard removes these restrictions.

Syllabis iWizard is an easy-to-use educational system that transforms the Internet into a safe, interactive, and structured learning environment.

Our browser gives students a structured interface within which to conduct web-based learning. It consists of instructions, assessments, downloadable documents, and a vast array of other tools that makes learning fun and exciting.

With nothing to configure and nothing to install, all you need is a current Web browser and a reliable internet connection.

Syllabis Assessments

Syllabis Education provides 2 types of assessments

Online assessments that we use to determine the best schooling solution for your child.

Online Assessments

Our online assessments can be broken down into 3 categories:

Educational Needs Analysis

Your desire to seek psychological intervention is your first step to navigate through the changes and difficulties life creates; guiding you to that place where the unknown feels comfortable, and your own resourcefulness is accessible.

Whether your needs are educational, transitional, psychological, or relational, our aim is to guide you, our respected clients to meaningful levels of functioning.

We work through a network of independent educational psychologists.

Financial Needs Analysis

We determine if you should consider taking out a financial product in order to protect your child's right to quality education, one which the government has failed to do in many countries. We can also suggest insurance and financial products for yourself, the parent, or the guardian.

Life Goals Analysis

Here we analyse you, the parent on 3 criteria:

- Financial Stability
- Happiness Index
- Life Goals
